CIRCULATION

LARGEST IN THE CITY.

Purely Business!

The columns of a newspaper represent a cash value. No publisher can afford to give advertising "bottom" free any more than a merchant can lose credit for the sake of a few goods or shoes. A newspaper is a legitimate business enterprise. Its value is its stock in trade, and advertisements should be paid for, not matter in what part of the paper they appear.

The Continued Calls

upon The Ledger for free notices have become so numerous that we are forced to publish the following form:

For Notices of Suppliers, excursions, fairs, or other public entertainments where a fee is charged, and for other notices, reasonable of respect, as The Ledger will charge five cents a line, and hereafter this will be the unchangeable rule. This, however.

Does Not Include

notices of Lodge meetings or Church services, which must not exceed ten lines.

Avoidance of Disputes.

Misunderstandings are unpleasant. The rate for business notices in The Ledger is 10 cents a line for the first insertion and 5 cents a line for subsequent insertions. A customer orders a five-line notice in the paper. "I'll tell you where to take it out," he says to the bookkeeper. But he forgets all about it. The notice runs for two months—40 times—the bill is $10. When he finds it out there is a "buck" and a controversy. Followed by an angry feeling. Now, to obviate this trouble, the following notice will be inserted hereafter. Let's have a definite agreement at the outset and the termination will be pleasant and around.

IF all matter for publication must be handed in before 9 o'clock in the morning of each day.

The State Canvassing Board will meet at Frankfort November 20th, whether the returns are in or not and certify to the returns of Tuesday's elections. Good music and everything will be as comfortable as possible.

The Ledger once more tenders its condolence to Editor William Remington of The Kentuckian-Citizen at Paris. In September he lost his only child—a sweet young girl—and on Saturday the good wife, Mrs. Pearl Lowry Remington, joined the angel in the Great Beyond.

The funeral took place yesterday afternoon at 3:30, with services at the Second Presbyterian Church by Elder J. B. Sweeney, assisted by Revs. E. H. Rutherford and F. J. Cheek.

Colonel W. Laifra Thomas was at Catlettsburg Saturday to see what was wrong about the vote of that county. It appeared that 127 votes which had been cast in one of the Precincts for Mr. Thomas were not entered upon the certificate which the election officers signed and sent in with the returns to the Clerk's office, and these votes were not counted for Mr. Thomas by the County Canvassing Board. The loss of these votes, however, does not change the result only so far as to increase Judge Fogg's majority by that number.

Newell and is one of Maysville's most charming young ladies, and the many friends of this popular young couple expect hearty congratulations and well wishes, and hope that their path will always be strewn with those things that promote happiness and good fortune.

The wedding will be a quiet one, with only the immediate relatives in attendance, and there will be no cards.

The Rev. W. O. Cochran of the Central Presbyterian Church will officiate, and after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Davis will leave on the C. and O. for a short visit to relatives and friends in Cincinnati, Covington and Louisville, after which they will be at home on West Second street.

THE NEWMAN CASE.

WHO THREW THE ROCK THAT HIT HIM.

Bruce and Boone Snapp are Tried and Acquitted—Teas Sam Guy Threw the Rock.

Bruce Snapp and Boone Snapp. Who reside near Murphysville.

Were arraigned before Judge Wade Saturday afternoon, charged with a breach of the peace.

These are the parties accused of striking Mr. Bruce Newman in the face with a rock on the night of the election.

The witnesses for the prosecution were Messrs. Bruce Newman, Charles Russell, John Lynch, Mr. Britain, James Teeters, Officer S. D. McDowell and Officer W. H. Davis.

From the testimony it appears that Mr. Newman did not strike either of the men, or any other man; and The Ledger's informant was wrong in making that statement to the Reporter who wrote the first account of the occurrence.

Mr. Newman and Charles Russell were walking down Second street near Gray alley; the two Snapps came up with them, and got into a controversy about politics, the Snapps and Russell having had a few drinks.

During the controversy there was no blow struck on either side, and when the parties were about to separate a tall man who was some distance away threw a rock and struck Mr. Newman in the cheek, inflicting an ugly wound; and the testimony goes to show that the man who threw the rock was Sam Guy, with whom Mr. Newman had had a previous difficulty.

For the defense Bruce Snapp said he was going along Second street halloing for McKinley, when Charles Russell, who halloied for Bryan, said Snapp had better "go down the alley, lay down and call himself nothing" for "halloing" for a dead man. His brother Boone was now stepping on the curbstone when Mr. Newman put out his arm and Boone's breast striking it he fell back. No attempt was made to hit Mr. Newman by either of the Snapps.

On cross-examination he testified that he saw Sam Guy throw the rock that struck Newman.

Boone's testimony was substantially as his brother's, save that he did not see Guy throw the rock. He had taken three drinks out of an Orangeburg beer bottle, but he wasn't drunk.

Other witnesses testified to seeing Sam Guy throw the rock.

Captain John E. Wells, a former resident of Murphysville, testified in the good character of the two Snapps, but.

And the warrants were dismissed.

SOME OF THE SILLY CLAIMS BRYAN PUT FORTH.

How Easy It Is to "Blow" Before Election—Read Below, and Then Read the Returns.

We expect to carry every single state in this Union. . . . Why, this man, [McKinley,] who used to boast that he looked like Napoleon, that man shudders at the thought of the Battle of Waterloo. Not only that, but as he listens he can hear with ever-increasing distinctness the sound of the waves as they beat upon the lonely shores of St. Helena.

—Mr. Bryan in his speech at the Chicago Convention.

We believe the people of this country are capable of self-government, and that whenever you see them studying a question you may depend upon it that they are arriving at a just conclusion.—Mr. Bryan at Escanaba, Mich., October 14th.

William J. Bryan will be the next President of the United States. The information that has come to us during the last week shows that nothing can now stem the tide that has set in his direction. The election is all over but counting the votes.—Chairman Faulkner at Washington, October 23d.

McKinley is the worst whipped Presidential candidate the country has ever had, and Hanna knows it.—Atlanta Constitution, October 23d.

I believe that New York state is going to go for Bryan. The people here are as intelligent as those of Illinois, and there is no doubt in my mind that they have been educated to a point where they know that their best interests will be served by the election of Mr. Bryan.—Governor Algiel in New York, October 23d.

Letters from farming sections of New York state and the enthusiasm of working classes in the metropolis afford ample assurance of victory for Bryan.—Chairman Alexander Delmar of the Silver party, New York, October 27th.

All signs indicate the overwhelming triumph of the people.—Proclamation issued by Jones, Faulkner and Black, October 29th.

I believe that Bryan will be triumphant ally elected. This movement is assuming the proportions of a landslide.—Secretary Edgerdon of the National Populist Committee, October 29th.

The doubtful states are the Middle Western, including Illinois, Indiana, Michigan, Ohio and Wisconsin, together with New York, making 134 electoral votes. Of the doubtful states, Ohio is most likely to furnish the greatest surprise. The silver Republicans vote will be enormous.—Chairman Washburn at Chicago, October 30th.

We shall have considerably more than 300 electoral votes.—Mr. Bryan at Osceola, Iowa, October 31st.

The cause of bimetalism has grown every day of this campaign. There has not been one backward step. There has not been a single moment when there was a cessation in the progress of our cause—and why? Because our cause is just and our argument unanswerable.—Mr. Bryan at Ottumwa, Iowa, October 31st.

Success now seems certain. The coercion practiced by many corporations and financial institutions will give us a large silent vote.—Mr. Bryan at The New York Journal, November 2d.

I am satisfied we are going to carry Illinois by 80,000 to 80,000 majority. The masses of the people are with us. Bryan's election is not only assured, but he is going to have the votes of Iowa, Ohio, Indiana, Michigan and even Ohio, to spare, for the latest information is we Check Swindlers in New York, Michigan, Ohio and Indiana.

A New Method of Raising the Wind by an Organized Gang.

They Went on the Road as Commercial Travelers—Then the Gang New York, Custody, While the Fugitive Broke Jail and Made His Escape.

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—After many weeks of patient work the police of this city, assisted by the Chicago police and the Pinkerton agency, have succeeded in bagging a remarkable gang of check and draft swindlers. For six months the forgers have flitted about the west and east, leaving forged drafts behind them in each place they visited.

Their method, according to the police, was an entirely new one and of a sort which proved successful. Every time it was tried, of the four members of the gang, three are now in custody, one in Michigan, one in Chicago and one in this city.

The fourth is the J. B. Lyons, or Harry Rhodes, who escaped from the Goeben (N. Y.) jail in the latter part of September, and is at Liberty. Lyons, or Rhodes, is better known as Kid Smith. The other men are Walter B. Peters, Willis Herbert Brown and William Thomas. The last to be nabbed was Peters.

The gang got together last June and planned a general swindle of bankers, merchants and hotelkeepers throughout the country. The men met in Chicago and made their plans. Peters is an expert lithographer, and his work was to print the necessary drafts and forges the necessary signatures, while Connor and Smith got rid of the paper.

It was resolved from the first that no forged checks would be used unless it became absolutely necessary. The gang operate one in order to get sufficient funds to get out of some temporary difficulty.

Connor and Smith, it was agreed, should go out on the road as commercial travelers. Peters was to stay in Chicago and send drafts to them as fast as they could get rid of them. In his letters he would pose as their employer, wording each epistle in a businesslike way and signing the name of some well known firm to each one. The police have in their possession a lot of these letters. They illustrate better than anything else why the men were so successful. In them Peters insists on the salesmen cutting down expenses as business is very hard.

Generally orders them to take new routes, mentions some firm in the next town which he wants them to be sure and visit, says that he expects an order and winds up by a reference to the enclosed draft.

Altogether the usual letter is a business-like one and apt to impress a hotel clerk.

The early travels of the alleged commercial travelers, however, were through Ohio and Indiana, and every place they went they passed their drafts on merchant hotelkeepers and even on banks. Peters kept sending on the drafts as fast as Connor and Smith could get rid of them. Each man had equipped himself with a lot of clear samples, the better to carry out their scheme, and they spent large amounts of money wherever they went. In each place visited the money changed as much as possible their personality.

Michigan was visited when Ohio and Indiana had become hot for the pair. In Michigan precisely the same game was worked, and there, as far as can be learned, $10,000 were cashed. In Ohio and Indiana $30,000 of the drafts were passed.

The police of the entire country were put on the track of the swindlers. The amount of money secured is not known, but bankers estimate it at $75,000.

KENTUCKY FOR MCKINLEY.

Chairman Roberts Says the State Goes Republican by About 444 Majority.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Nov. 8.—The republican state campaign committee will close up shop Monday. Chairman Sam Roberts issued his final bulletin Sunday afternoon. It is as follows:

Practically complete official returns give McKinley 444 plurality in Kentucky, unofficial returns indicating that the four missing counties will increase rather than decrease these figures. The republicans claim the vote of some of congress and a judge of the highest court of the state for an eight year term, and by the filling of vacancies have secured a majority of two in the general assembly on joint ballot, which insures the election of a republican governor and senator. The total vote of the state will approximate 425,000, with an increase of 70,000 over last year's vote, 35,000 more than the highest estimates before the election. The republican vote increased about 4,000 over last year's vote, which was 17,000 higher than before cast in a presidential election. The democratic vote was 23,000 higher. These will give some idea of the intensity of the political struggle through which Kentucky has just passed.

(Signed) SAM J. ROBERTS, Chairman.

Mr. Roberts sent congratulatory telegrams to Maj. McKinley and Mark Hanna, and to the republican electors. When asked about the probability of the democrats getting one electoral vote Mr. Roberts stated that this could not be ascertained until the official count was made by the state canvassing board. Gov. Bradley, as a member of the state canvassing board has sent the following telegram to National Committeeman Scott, of New York: "Kentucky has certainly gone for McKinley and will put on certainly (Signed) W. O. BRADLEY."

Up to 10 o'clock the Courier Journal had no new figures on the result of the election in Kentucky and McKinley's plurality stands 444 with six counties to be heard from officially. Whether or not the discrepancy between the votes for different electors on the same ticket has resulted in the choice of one or the other, the democratic electors can not be known positively until the state canvassing board foots up the result of the election. The democratic leaders still claim the state but none of them was in town Sunday.

A CORRESPONDENCE

Of a Most Startling Character Between President Cleveland and the Spanish Republic.

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—A Journal special from Washington says information of the most startling character regarding a correspondence between President Cleveland and the Spanish minister, Senor Dupuy de Lome, concerning the status of this country toward Cuba, was current here Sunday. It is said that a few days ago the president in a semi-official conversation with the Spanish minister whether he had any information that he might be willing give regarding the status of Spain toward the insurgents in Cuba. To this suggestion Senor Dupuy de Lome is said to have sent a reply in which he assured the president that within 60 days from the date thereof, November 1, Spain would have crushed the revolution or withdrawn her troops from the island.

To this astounding rejoinder, President Cleveland is said to have replied, on the following day, that he could consider the information imparted by the Spanish minister as sufficient to justify this government in delaying any action until the expiration of the time named and that by the same token he would feel justified in recommending recognition of the status of this country toward the Spanish government full to restore peace within two months.

In the opinion of those who know the Spanish minister, the rejoinder in part regarded as a clever diplomatic attempt to forestall any action by the president based on the report that General Lee is believed to be about to make and to secure a postponement of action by the executive until the winter campaign shall have been inaugurated.

AN OUTRAGE

Committed on An American Citizen Residing in Cuba.

Protest Filed With the Vice Consul and Case Sent to Washington.

A Sample of a "Great Spanish Victory"—Brutality of the Spanish Government in the Treatment of the Cuban Garrison of Guaymas Captured by Garcia.

KEY WEST, Fla., Nov. 9.—Passengers who arrived from Havana bring intelligence of another outrage committed on an American citizen. Although the details are incomplete, the facts are positive, since the victim has filed a protest with Vice Consul Springer and the case has been sent to Washington for instructions. It appears that near the town of San Jose de Las Lajas, this province, a Spanish force patrolling the country surprised three rebels who tried to sneak into town. The Spaniards gave chase and the rebels fled. In order to discover the hiding place of the fugitives, the Spanish force divided into squads of 50 men and went them to different directions, and one of these parties went to the estate owned by a Cuban, where Frederick L. Graycraft, a native of Indiana and only two years in Cuba, was manager. They forced the residence, destroyed the furniture and ransacked the premises. The women present were insulted in the most outrageous manner, excepting rape. Graycraft protested, but was told to be silent and showed papers. This, it seems, incensed the officer in command, who drew a sword and commenced slashing at Graycraft. He managed to avert death, but was wounded in the back, receiving a fearful slash that cut out a part of his flesh. His forearm was also cut to the bone. The other officers interfering, saved his life. Graycraft was forced to deliver about $100 in his possession. Neatly made Graycraft heard great outcries outside and went out later and saw the peaceful and helpless men. There was not one insurgent amongst them. All this was reported last week as a great Spanish victory.

Letters received from President McKinley give further details of the capture of the town of Guaymas by Calixto Garcia. The whole garrison, 100 men, surrendered, and are still prisoners, although Garcia sent word to Castellanos that he would deliver them, and also attacking the officers and soldiers' wounds.

It is rumored Weyler has issued secret orders to military commanders in sugar districts, prohibiting firing on rebels, and also to destroy implements and to simulate flight in order to scare the farmers and laborers. Passengers by the steamer Olympic also reported that Cuban insurgents from the command of Gen. Gomez have entered the province of Matanzas during the last week, and have caused Gen. Weyler to dispatch 6,000 of his troops, stationed in Finca del Rio district into Matanzas. Considerable excitement exists in Havana and also in Matanzas, fearing an attack upon the latter place.

NEW YORK CLERGYMAN

Makes a Strong Defense of the Turks in the Armenian Matter.

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—In his sermon Sunday night, Rev. I. S. Halldeman, D. D., of the First Baptist church, declared a strong defense of the Turks in the Armenian matter, arguing that the latter got what they deserved. He declared that Armenians are anarchy and bomb throwers, and they had tried to blow up the Ottoman bank with 100 innocent clerks in it. Dr. Halldeman said the Turkish empire was necessary to the peace of Europe and Asia. Those who advised the dismemberment of the Turkish government did not think very profoundly. But the Turk was today by the will of God in order that the land of Palestine might keep its Sabbath and the Jews still remain in it.
